

To Whom it May Concern,

It is extraordinarily
disconcerting to
learn that Sinclair Broadcasting will
air "Stolen Honor"
days before the
election with no
opposing view point.
Obviously, Sinclair
is using public
airways to
disseminate
political propaganda. While this may be an
acceptable practice
for movie makers, I
find it absolutely
loathsome that a
broadcaster can do
so!

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to
serve the public interest. By not offering a counter
argument or opposing
view point, Sinclair
is obviously using
GOVERNMENT owned
airwaves to further
a political agenda.
As a taxpayer and
voter I find this
absolutely unacceptable. Voters
already feel
disenfranchised but
when those with
means can promote
their agenda via
taxpayer property
the feeling becomes
exacerbated.

These actions on
part of Sinclair Broadcasting are
prime example of why
broadcasting
corporations must
be regulated if they
cannot remain
unbiased. Further,
they show why the
license renewal
process needs to
involve more than a
returned postcard.

voter, I ask you to
urge not only
Sinclair but all
broadcasters to
fulfill their
capacity in an
unbiased fashion.

Best Regards,

Clark Henderson
